

Iranian Society of Quality Managers (ISQM), Iran

Recent activities of ISQM.

- Negotiations with Latin American Quality Institute for joint projects and cooperation for common objectives at global level.
- Interview and report of history and activities of ISQM at Quality Magazine, Editions 117 and 120, monthly periodical of Latin American Quality Institute.
- Annual survey for Iranian quality managers needs and expectation for future programs.
- Planning and approval of strategic activities for the new Iranian year 1388 (2009) at national, regional and international levels.
- Recruiting about 100 members to American Society for Quality and facilitating new members communication for learning and improving their quality knowledge.
- Interview of ISQM Board Member with National Radio aimed for spreading quality culture and its impact in family.
- Publication of “ Quality Managers” for Winter 2008 and distribution around the country for current members and prospective members.
- Advertising and encouraging active participation at MEQA 3rd annual congress in Dubai and contribution to the event at different levels.
- Interview of ISQM Board Member with widespread national newspaper about strategic management and its deployment in top organizations and its impact on national development.

- Advertising and encouraging active participation at the 53rd EOQ Congress in Croatia.
- Internal seminar for ISQM secretary and administrative staff for the new global environment and ISQM strategies.
- One-day seminar titled “ Succeeding in Times of Uncertainty” for Chamber of Commerce of Iran with 300 participants including top governmental executives in Ispahan by international Invited speaker from UK.
- Third annual seminar titled “ Succeeding in Times of Uncertainty” for top managers and executives with 320 participants in Tehran by international invited speaker from UK.
- Advertising and encouraging active participation at 15th APQO International Conference in Mexico.
- Advertising and encouraging active contribution and participation at 7th ANQ Congress in Japan.
- Planning for two seasonal seminars to be held in Autumn and Winter 2009 at national level.